Earnest “Earnie” Porta for Supervisor Website and Facebook Page Designed By SmartWeb Marketing

Former Mayor of Occoquan Announces Candidacy for Prince William County’s Occoquan District Supervisor; Online Presence Through Internet and Social Media Important Part of Communications

April 8, 2015 – Occoquan, Virginia—Ralph Altman, CEO of SmartWeb Marketing announced the launch of Occoquan District Supervisor Earnest Porta’s campaign website and Facebook page www.earnieportaforsupervisor.com and <https://www.facebook.com/earnieportaoccoquansupervisor>

Altman stated that he worked with the former mayor in developing the Town of Occoquan’s website in 2013 www.occoquanva.gov and was excited to help support Mayor Porta in his quest to win the Prince William County Board of Supervisor’s Occoquan District seat.

"It is an honor to be selected in helping Earnie’s campaign," he said. "We had collaborated very closely with him in developing the town’s website and once again, his feedback and technical expertise was a huge factor in producing his campaign website."

The web site has plenty of information on Mayor Porta’s resume and shares his rich history of massive community involvement both as a local business owner, published author and engaged citizen. Supporters can sign up for volunteer activities, send Earnie email and even make a donation online. The Facebook page already has almost 300 likes and will be used for more “real time” events and also to interact with volunteers.

For more information, visit the new web site at www.earnieportaforsupervisor.com and LIKE Earnie on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/earnieportaoccoquansupervisor>
